6th SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."
- Jn 15:16-17

Dies sind die heil'gen zehn Gebot (These are the Holy Ten Commandments) BWV 678 by J.S. Bach

Introit : Vocem jucunditatis annuntiate, et audiat, alleluia: nuntiate usque ad extremum terrae: liberavit Dominus populum suum, alleluia, alleluia.

Declare it with the voice of joy, and make it known, alleluia: Declare it even to the ends of the earth: The Lord hath delivered His people, alleluia, alleluia.

Communion:

Non vos relinquam orphanos, vèniam ad vos iterum, alleluia: et gaudébit cor vestrum, alleluia, alleluia. Lætátus sum in eo, quod dixerunt mihi: In domum Dómini íbimus. Stantes jam sunt pedes nostri in portis tuis, Jerúsalem. Non vos. Jerusalem, quæ ædificáta est ut cívitas, sibi compácta in idípsum.

I will not leave you orphans: I will come to you, and your heart shall rejoice. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. Our feet were standing in thy courts, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem, which is built as a city, which is compact together.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

At the Last Supper, knowing that he would soon be leaving the company of his disciples, Jesus assures them that the Father would send another Advocate to remain with them always. They would never be orphans, he promises them, because this Advocate—the Holy Spirit—would remain with them and in them. For many of us, our mothers also advocate for us and remain in us, even if they have passed away. On this Mother's Day, as we celebrate our mothers and those who have been a mother to us over the years, let us pray that the Holy Spirit bless them now and always.

Sacramental Celebrations in Our Parish

The parish community rejoices in the continued growth of faith among its members. We extend our congratulations and prayers to the four individuals received into the Church at the Easter Vigil.

Please keep in your prayers the seven young people from our Religious Education program who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on May 9 at Immaculate Conception, the 28 children who will receive their First Holy Communion at the 5:00 PM Mass on May 16, and the 10 adults from OCIA who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday at the 12:00 PM Mass.

We also remember in prayer those continuing their OCIA journey toward the Easter Vigil of 2027.

May all who receive the Sacraments, and those preparing for them, be strengthened in grace and continue to grow in faith within the Church.

Welcome to the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal:

With hearts full of gratitude, we give thanks to our faithful supporters whose generosity brings the mission of Christ to life. Through the Annual Catholic Appeal, we come together as one Church—united in purpose, rich in diversity, and committed to serving all God's people.

Your support sustains vital ministries that heal, teach, accompany, and uplift—reaching the poor, forming future generations, supporting our priests, and sharing the hope of the Gospel throughout Brooklyn and Queens. Each gift is a powerful expression of faith in action, transforming lives and strengthening our Church.

Thank you for standing with us.
Together, we are One Church—united in mission and rich in service.

You may choose to become a sustaining donor by selecting the “Recurring” option when making your pledging online. This ongoing commitment allows your generosity to extend far beyond today, ensuring that our Church's diverse ministries continue to flourish in service to one united mission.
